CLERK
US BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

This letter is in response to the motion filed on behalf of the debtors, Mitchell Gold Co. LLC on September 12, 2023.

This is to inform you that based on the reading of this document that we received on September 21, 2023, we assert that this motion does not apply to our order #1811413164 placed on July 2, 2023 (attached).

On the evening of September 6th, we called our sales associate, Ashley Middlebrooks, on her personal cell phone to follow up on a possible delivery date for our order. Ahsley then informed us that MG & BW had gone out of business and that the retail store referenced in the above order had shut down. She also informed us that everyone in the company had been let go, including all manufacturing.

Upon subsequent calls to the customer line, we have received no response to our voicemails we left on the phone line. Until this notice of the above referenced motion, we have received no contact from MG & BW. Since we received no return call or notice of any kind, we contacted Wells Fargo who maintains our Visa card and filed a dispute. This motion assumes that the retail customer has received notice of a finished order and possible delivery. We have received no such notice that our furniture was completed.

Therefore, we have proceeded with our dispute, and Wells Fargo has agreed to credit our account for the full amount of the order. Because there has been no communication that our furniture was completed, we refuse any such title to the property referenced in the above order. The dispute now rests with Wells Fargo, Visa and Mitchell Gold Co LLC.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah Thompson
